Interview should be conducted to determine if any efforts were made to compromise or recruit subject. There are no known reasons why subject should not be interviewed.

Traffic Court records, Detroit, show that subject, born 1/14/14, Negro, 165 pounds, 5'8", during the period 3/24/57 to 1/13/64, received 18 traffic citations, primarily of a parking nature. The records of the Identification Bureau, Detroit Police Department, disclosed that DUDLEY F. RANDALL, Detroit Police Department #67013, was arrested 5/16/42 on a charge of murder. This individual, at the time of his arrest, was described as 28 years old, 5'8½", 148 pounds, medium brown complexion, slim build, black hair, and the record bears a notation, "this man did murder one JAMES WHITE (C), at 297 Erskine, 5/15/42, with a knife and then gave up to the officers stating that he committed the crime". Disposition of that arrest is not shown. In view of the similarity in names, age and descriptive data, it would appear that this individual is identical to the subject.

It is noted on page four of relet that Randall is apparently identical with an individual who admitted committing murder in 1942.

It is noted on page one of referenced LHM that Randall is reportedly a poet, librarian and editor.

Prior to making a decision regarding your request for authority to interview Randall, Bureau desires that Randall's role as a poet and editor be fully ascertained and any connection with news media determined.

You should also determine whether Randall is identical with the individual having the same name who admitted committing the murder of James White in 1942. Disposition of the arrest in this matter should also be determined.

The Active Section of the voters records disclose that DUDLEY RANDALL, born 1/14/14, whose mother is identified as ADA RANDALL, registered to vote 10/7/57, at which time he resided at 3407 Longfellow. On 2/28/64, he moved to 12651 Old Mill Place, Detroit. It is noted that this is the current address of subject.

On 10/25/66, [redacted] Civil Service Commission, advised SA [redacted] that her records disclose that DUDLEY FELKER RANDALL, born 1/14/14, at Washington, D. C., is currently employed as "librarian - 4 reference" and resides at 12651 Old Mill Place, Detroit. His file, according to [redacted] contains copy of Wayne County Sheriff's Office criminal record, #Z5270; FBI #2778699, for subject. That record shows his arrest by the Detroit Police Department, #67013, on 5/16/42, on a charge of murder, and disposition is shown "5/19/42 discharged on writ of judge." The only other entry on that record shows his fingerprinting by the Sheriff's Office, Wayne County, 7/16/56, as an applicant for employment. His file shows that in 1952, at Jefferson City, Missouri, [redacted]

On 10/25/66, [redacted] identified and advised SA [redacted] that subject's file contains no information to indicate any outside employment. She noted that at the time he was afforded a physical examination in 1956 in connection with his employment, his marital status was shown as divorced. She also advised that his file shows that on 7/20/66, subject requested leave without pay (LWOP) for the period 8/15 to 26/66, "for visit to Russia". His request was approved and he was on LWOP during that period, but there is nothing in his file to show whether he actually did travel to Russia, and the specific reason for such. She noted that at the time of subject's request for LWOP, he had accrued 17 days annual leave, and in order for him to be placed on LWOP, he would have had to use up his accrued annual leave.

On 10/25/66, [redacted] Internal Revenue Service, Federal Building, Detroit, advised SA [redacted]

DE 100-33880

On 10/25/66, at the Assumed Names Section, Wayne County Clerk's Office, SA [redacted] determined that under docket #187451, DUDLEY RANDALL, 12651 Old Mill Place, Detroit, filed with the Wayne County Clerk, on 8/20/65, a certificate to conduct business under the name Broadside Press at 12651 Old Mill Place, Detroit. No other data is shown on that certificate.

The files of the Detroit Office contain no additional information concerning subject, and no information concerning Broadside Press.

On 10/25/66, at the Detroit Public Library, SA [redacted] determined that there is no listing for subject or the Broadside Press in any of the following:

1966/67 Literary Market Place/Directory of American Book Publishing, and the 1966 Supplemental Alphabetical Index of some 14,000 persons connected with the American book industry; Writers Market, 1966.

It was also determined that the Index of Authors maintained at the Detroit Library does not list subject as the author of any books maintained at the Detroit Public Library. Also, he is not listed in the Index of Magazine Writers and Authors maintained at the Detroit Library. The 1960-64 Essay and General Index of Authors, Free-Lance Writers, etc., did not contain a listing for subject.

A previous check of Credit Data Corporation and Merchants Credit Bureau disclosed no information to indicate subject is engaged in any capacity other than as a librarian.

On 10/25/66, SA [ ] made a pretext telephone call [ ] to [ ]. She advised that she is acquainted with the subject and his wife, [ ].

[ ] She said that she knows subject to be employed as a librarian and [ ]. She stated she has no knowledge of any other employment by subject, and commented that subject [ ].

On 10/26/66, SA [ ] contacted [ ] "Detroit Free Press", and [ ] "Detroit News", both Detroit daily newspapers. Both [ ] advised that they did not know the subject and their records contain no information concerning him.

He is employed as a librarian, Wayne County Public Library, 33030 Van Born Road, Wayne, Mich., and in addition he writes poetry, short stories, articles and book reviews for the "Negro Digest." About one year ago he formed his own company called Broadside Press which to date has been devoted to periodically publishing one sheet under the title of "Broadside" which has contained one poem. He sells these to individuals and libraries through the U. S. Mail.

In April 1966 RANDALL met [redacted], at the Writers Conference held at Fisk University, Nashville, Tenn. At that time he learned from [redacted] that [redacted] a Negro cultural group to visit the U.S.S.R. during the summer of 1966 and at that time voiced to her his desire to also visit the U.S.S.R. He requested that during [redacted] visit to the U.S.S.R. [redacted]

Travel arrangements for the group were made [redacted] and the group departed New York City on July 29, 1966, and returned to the United States about one month later.

Their first stop was at Paris, France, and they remained there for several days awaiting receipt of their Soviet visa, the group having left the United States before receipt of their visas.

On arrival at Moscow, U.S.S.R., the group was met by a Soviet official whose name RANDALL did not recall. RANDALL understood [redacted]

RANDALL's principal interest in going to the U.S.S.R. was to meet the two Soviet poets, [redacted] and [redacted] but he was not successful in meeting either of these two individuals. During his stay in Moscow he met and talked with [redacted] whom he stated is [redacted]

RANDALL assumed this book was sent to him by [redacted] and as a token of appreciation he sent to [redacted] a copy of [redacted] Selected Poems.

RANDALL stated during his travel in the U.S.S.R. and his three or four day stop over in Prague, no one attempted to compromise him or to solicit his cooperation and no one made any unusual request of him, and he said he has no knowledge that any of the other members of this group had any difficulty with the Soviet or Czechoslovakian authorities. Since his return to the United States no representative of the U.S.S.R. or Soviet Bloc country has contacted him and he stated that in the event anyone from those countries should contact him he would immediately advise the FBI.

RANDALL recalled that during the tour his group engaged in discussions with several Soviet groups and invariably the discussion centered around the United States involvement in Vietnam and the civil rights situation in the United States. He stated during those discussions it was obvious that the Soviet's position concerning Vietnam is that the United States is the aggressor in Vietnam and its involvement is contrary to the Geneva Agreement. RANDALL said that since he was not familiar with the Geneva Agreement, he did not take part in the discussion. He stated on the question of civil rights in the United States he voiced his opinion that the gains achieved in the United States by the Negro were due primarily to the efforts and initiative of the Negroes themselves and not to any legislation which has been passed in that area.
